

INDIRA PANT

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT

Clean Slate Consulting Pte Ltd: 2003 - present

Director at this leadership and strategy consulting firm, which provides executive education and research support to large multinationals as well as Asian small and medium enterprises. Specific areas of focus include strategic thinking, organization culture, communication, managing change and entrepreneurship. Cases published in these areas include:

- Being a Change Agent with Gaba, V. and Puranam, P. (2014)
- Eastern Condiments Private Limited with Padmanabhan, P. (2014)
- Russell Mehta at Rosy Blue: A Diamantaire for Life with Vissa, B. (2013)
- Olam International with Constantini, J. and Pant, N. (2011)
- Essilor Korea with Morrison, A. and Gaba, V., (2009)

National University of Singapore (NUS): 2002 - present

Adjunct Lecturer in the Department of Management and Organization at the NUS Business School. Courses taught include:

- Management and Organization: Introduction to the principles and practice of management and organization
- Employee Management in Singapore: Contemporary employee management issues and challenges faced by organizations in Singapore
- Human Capital in Organizations: The issues and challenges faced by both organizations and individuals in their attempt to build human capital in today's globalized, knowledge-intensive environment

PAST EMPLOYMENT

- Manager, UNICEF - United Nations Children's Fund, Canada, an international agency belonging to the United Nations system that supports global initiatives for children
- General Manager, CRY-Child Rights & You, India, a leading Indian non-governmental organization that supports underprivileged children
- Executive Assistant to Mr. Ratan Tata, Chairman of Tata Industries Ltd, the largest business house in India

POST SECONDARY EDUCATION

- Post Graduate Diploma in Management (MBA), with a specialization in Organization Behaviour and Information Systems, Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta, India. Awarded gold medal for first rank
- B.A.(Hons.) Mathematics, St. Stephen's College, University of Delhi, India. Awarded gold medal for first rank